

Case Study #5

You were surprised to find BSAT hits among some of your GFP cassette sequences after running SeqScreen in sensitive mode.

What caused this, and how could these results be prevented from happening in the future?